

ESTATE WINES

LANDESGUT · PODERE
Laimburg

Alto Adige / Südtirol
Gewürztraminer DOC

Vintage
2009

Varietal
Gewürztraminer

Vineyards and soil
Freiberg, near Merano/Meran: westfacing slope with soil over bedrock, 500
metres above sea level.

Laimburg ruins: south and southeast facing slopes with sandy alluvial
and porphyry soils, 300-350 metres above
sea level.

Seeburg, near Bressanone/Brixen:
southwest slope with sandy soil, 550 metres above sea level.

Training Form
Espalier

Vinification
After light pressing and low-temperature
fermentation in stainless steel, the young wine is aged on the lees for five months before bottling.

Technical Data

Alcohol: 14,50 % by volume Total acidity: 4,60 g/l
Sugar-free extracts: 22,00 g/l

Aging Potential

Five years

Description

Light yellow in colour with gold highlights, with a delicate bouquet of exotic fruit, such as lychee, and roses. Forceful, yet well balanced, with a long finish.

Serving Suggestion

Chilled to 12° C, an ideal aperitif that also pairs well with risotto, shellfish and other seafood, or spicy Asian recipes as well as sharp cheeses.

Gewürztraminer